TASTING NOTE:	Deep opaque purple in the glass. The nose bounds from the glass with notes of wild, herby blueberry jam and boysenberry liqueur, supported by milk chocolate and graham cracker notes in the background. This is confident, fleshy, ripe fruit without apology. The palate delivers on every promise: super-bold, super-rich, with lovely bilberry notes threading through the low-acid structure. With a fathomless well of fruit on the palate, the tannins are present but polished, carrying flavors that refuse to quit through a finish at least a minute long.
